

5.5
10

What are the main indicators/conditions of a weak entity?

Weak entity is an entity that have no clear attribute to be used as a key (primary key) and this is the most important condition for to decide if it is a weak entity or not. at the same time weak entities tend to be forcefully connected to other entities in all of its rows (datasets).